This merchant company was founded in 1739. It has enjoyed more than 275 years of history and 8 generations of family management. The sale of Grand Cru wines represents 50% of the firm's activities, while the other 50% is made up of exclusive distribution of Châteaux & Marques (brands), including Chartron La Fleur from the regional AOC, the Private Reserve range from the village or communal AOCs, and Altera in IGP. The company sells 4 million bottles a year. 75% of these are sold on the export market, of which 25% are sent to Asia.
